

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR HONORARY ASSOCIATE DEGREE RECIPIENT(S)

On January 8, 2007, the Genesee Community College Board of Trustees adopted guidelines and established criteria for nominations for Honorary Associate Degrees (Board Policy #1034). Such honorary degrees will be awarded to recognize:

1. individuals associated with the College who have earned extraordinary business, professional, civic, and scholarly accomplishments;
2. individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to the life and growth of Genesee Community College; and/or
3. individuals associated with Genesee Community College who are notable leaders in academic disciplines taught at the College.

The policy outlining the criteria and a form for nomination are available at www.genesee.edu. Nominations should include:

- The nominee's name and address
- The nominee's primary business, professional, civic, and academic affiliations
- The criterion (criteria) upon which the nomination is based (see 1-3 above)
- A detailed description of the nominee's business, professional, civic, or academic accomplishments; contributions to the College; or leadership in his or her academic discipline
- References to awards, publications, or other public recognition of the nominee

Nominations should be submitted by February 1, 2009 to:
